PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Scholarship Committee of the Pearl and Ivy Educational Foundation (PIEF) has traditionally awarded three separate sets of annual scholarships:

- (1) The PIEF high school scholarships, awarded each spring and open to graduating seniors enrolled in District of Columbia public high schools and public charter high schools;
- (2) PIEF “returning” or “renewal” scholarships, awarded to former PIEF high school scholarship recipients currently enrolled and in good standing at colleges/universities as rising sophomores – rising seniors; and
- (3) Xi Omega undergraduate scholarships, awarded to members of the three undergraduate chapters of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. (Alpha Chapter at Howard University, Beta Lambda Chapter at the University of the District of Columbia and Lambda Zeta Chapter at American University) supervised by the Xi Omega Chapter.

Each set of scholarships is application-based, with students required to submit a written application, supporting documentation, and for the first two categories of scholarships an essay responding to a designated question.

2019 HIGHLIGHTS

#CAP — In collaboration with our partner, Xi Omega Chapter, PIEF served 55 young people through the College Admissions Process Program, known as #CAP. This program helps high school students navigate each step of the admissions process through a series of monthly workshops and related activities. Students had an opportunity to visit Howard University, attend the National College Fair and hear from education expert representing the Office of the State Superintendent of Education, Trinity Washington University and other educational institutions.

HBCU Support — PIEF members provided generous support to historically Black colleges and universities through direct donations and fundraising initiatives. Total support reached nearly $53,000 including over $30,000 in scholarships for students attending HBCUs and more than $10,000 at HBCU-ish, our signature HBCU Impact Day event. Members' fundraising strength in the DC Metro HBCU Alliance's Annual 5K Walk/Run yielded "Greek GiveBack Dollars" for programming.
